

Satellite radio is becoming an important part of my commute and free time. We don't yet have the traffic element in Atlanta but I look forward to the service. I will not go back to terrestrial radio to pick up the traffic so I do without, please do not interfere with XM Satellite radio's ability to provide the services I need.